About the Workshop

The Institute for the Study of Labor (IZA), the Centre de Recherche en Economie et Statistique (CREST), and the Department of Economics at the University of Bonn are organizing a joint workshop to be held at IZA in Bonn on March 4-5, 2016.

The goal of this workshop is to bring together junior and senior researchers to discuss their recent research on employment policies, heterogeneity in the labor market, and the effect of heterogeneity on policy or the heterogeneity of policy outcomes. We welcome both empirical and theoretical work.

Topics include (but are not limited to):

- Labor market policy to reduce youth unemployment
- The effects of flexible working time arrangements and temporary jobs
- The effects of business cycles on earnings dynamics and worker mobility
- Sources of the heterogeneity in labor market outcomes
- Heterogeneous effects of labor market policies

Any questions regarding the workshop can be addressed to:

Pierre Cahuc pierre.cahuc@gmail.com
Moritz Kuhn mokuhn@uni-bonn.de
